Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurA witty and enthralling Regency romance by one of the best-known and most beloved historical novelists.The legend of the Headless Horseman and a proposed marriage de convenance both have their impact on the mystery of a golden talisman ring and Lord Lavenham's young heir, Ludovic. Neither Sir Tristram Shield nor Eustacie, his young French cousin, share the slightest inclination to marry one another, yet it is Lord Lavenham's dying wish. For there is no one else to provide for the old man's granddaughter while Ludovic remains a fugitive from justice ...Yet again Georgette Heyer shows the qualities that made her one of the most successful and best-loved romantic novelists of her age, and why her popularity endures to this day.From AudioFileUpon the death of his Uncle Sylvester, the unromantic Sir Tristram finds himself betrothed to his effervescently romantic French cousin and caught up in the travails of Ludovic, fugitive heir, free trader and presumed murderer. Phyllida Nash is supremely in the spirit of things. She exudes the Regency attitudes while firmly holding the reins of this galloping adventure. Her rendition of a law-abiding justice of the peace who likes his imported wines is perfect. Languid sighs, militant commands, servile accents, and hilariously inane babbling, are all under the command of Nash. If you can have only one Heyer, this is it. S.B.S. Revue de presse "One of Heyer's most entertaining reads" (Good Book Guide) "Georgette Heyer is unbeatable" (India Knight) "Sparkling" (Independent) "My favourite historical novelist - stylish, romantic, sharp, and witty. Her sense of period is superb, her heroines are enterprising, and her heroes dashing. I owe her many happy hours" (Margaret Drabble) "With a Georgette Heyer you don't buy a book, you buy a world. If it suits you, you settle down forever" (Time Magazine)
